Q. Place of birth?

A. Casablanca, Morocco

Q. Why this career choice?

A. I have always been passionate about human beings and marketing allows me to study, to understand and to meet their needs.

Q. You chose New Brunswick or it chose you?

A. It was definitely the province that chose me. I met Nicolas from RDEE NB at Destination Acadie (where I had participated just out of curiosity after my immigration project was completed) and he offered to put me in touch with the Network for a job opportunity. Two months later I arrived in Petit Rocher, NB with my three suitcases and settled there.

Q. Your passion?

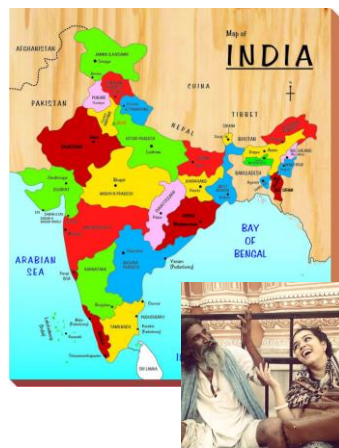

A. It's adventure, travel, cultures and as J. Green sings, "I am in love with cities I've never been to and people I've never met."

Q. Favorite leisure activity?

A. Reading, nature and meditation

Q. Your best travel experience?

A. India.

It is an incredibly entrenched culture, an undeniable authenticity of life. It completely changed my perception of the world and my priorities.

Q. Destinations yet to discover?

- Australia, for its nature and its animals;
- Egypt, for its ancestral culture;
- Turkey, for history; and
- South America, for the language.

Q. To dine with any person in history who do you select?

Nelson Mandela and Mahatma Gandhi

Two great pacifist revolutionaries.

Q. Which of our four seasons do you prefer?

A. Without hesitation: autumn.

Q. Best advice you have ever received?

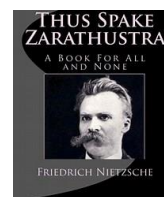

A. "Wherever you go, go with all your heart."

- Confucius.

Q. Last book read?

A.. Thus Spoke Zarathustra: A Book for All and None

is a philosophical novel by German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche.

Q. Favorite quote?

A. "The merry always heal." - Rabelais

Q. Favorite author?

A. Khalil Gibran.

Q. A book you recommend? Why?

A. The philosopher who was not wise

- Laurent Gounelle

Because the author emphasizes the conditioning that civilization makes us undergo.

Q. What are you most proud of?

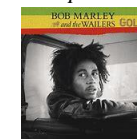

A. To have worked on four continents.

Q. You win the lottery? What do you do?

A. Project of guest houses in Morocco for all my family and then a trip around the world.

Q. Favorite movie?

The Shawshank Redemption

Music?

Redemption song, - Bob Marley

Q. Your advice to the newcomer who wants to relocate to New Brunswick and Canada?

A. Get out of your comfort zone and get off the beaten track because it's the unexplored that you will discover where the greatest opportunities lie 😊

Q. What one word best describes you?

Adventurer

Q. You can make three wishes come true, what are they?

- World peace;
- Eliminate borders between countries; and
- Eternal life with those I love.

Q. Hero of your youth? Today?

Harry and

Potter

All the Buddhas

Q. The question you detest?

A. When will you stop running and decide on a stable life?

Q. Regarding immigration to NB, what are your immediate, long-term challenges? Solutions?

A. I miss the social and cultural life of days gone by and I remain somewhat in the dark about career opportunities.

I hope to open myself to new things, to learn new passions and to continue to network.

Q. What would you like to see written on your tombstone?

A. Love one another.

Q. The question you wished had been asked?

A. What is your biggest fear?
