INTERVIEW

Pascale Bellavance

Integration Service Coordinator for Restigouche-West – New Brunswick Multicultural Council
 More precisely in the region of Saint-Quentin and Kedgwick.

Q. Place of birth?

Saint-Martin de Restigouche, DSL de Saint-Quentin, NB. It is a small parish of around 300 souls. We all know each other and we are connected on one side or the other.

I grew up in this small community and also lived until recently, my parents still live there, now I live just a few miles away and go there regularly to reconnect with nature – it is so lovely to listen to and to watch.

Q. Why this career choice?

A new challenge arose in the fall of 2020. I decided to take the plunge and I have no regrets about my decision.

Q. Your passion?

Sports, workout, dance, and to stay in shape. I have always enjoyed training, which allows me to set goals. I took part in a Fitness competition in 2018, which was a very nice and enriching experience.
