Q. You chose the Restigouche (NB) or did it choose you?

Tara: I guess the area chose me twice.

I came back to be closer to my mom and dad - my father's health was failing (he would die in October 2020).

Since then, the decision was made to stay. And, by chance, I got a job and I've never been happier!

About your new business :

Q. Why a book business ? To launch it during a pandemic?

Tara: I've always imagined owning a bookstore when I retired.

The opportunity just happened to present itself now so Matt and I decided to jump on the chance.

If we didn't try this we might regret it later.

Q. Kind of books you sell ?

Tara: We will be selling used books, used comic books and we will have a section of new books.

For the new books we'd like to focus on maritime authors mostly.

Q. Why the name Flying Canoe ?

Tara: When Matt and I went to Quebec city, there was a street artist painting the legend of the flying canoe, La Chasse Gallerie.

Matt fell in love with the story and so had this artist's painting tattooed on his arm.

A friend suggested the name to us and we thought it was a great idea!

We felt it fit well with the area – the river, Acadians, First Nations...

Q. Your target market?

Tara: Everybody! I know that is very vague, but we do plan to try to cater to a vast market. Aside from what I've mentioned earlier, we are partnering up with Café Europa (Campbellton, NB) to offer their coffee to the downtown area.

We will have a selection of hand dyed yarn from local indie dyers.

We will be hosting some game nights, and tournaments once restrictions allow.

Eventually we want to have some tabletop role playing games (RPG) events, some game workshops.

I would like to have story nights; I'd love to partner up with local elders to teach the local community of their history and culture.

We have lots of ideas for the future which encompasses a large market.

Q. Do you specialize in a certain category of books?

Tara: No, we will offer a selection of all kinds. For the new books, we will likely specialize in maritime authors.

Q. Any upcoming sales?

Tara: We are trying to have our grand opening on March 6th. Along with this we may have some door crasher deals however nothing concrete yet.

Stay tuned!
